Bright Futures is a transformational life skills/character development program that supports, empowers, and inspires vulnerable under-performing youth to discover and reach their full potential. For the first time in their lives, youth understand that they have ability to make life-changing choices regardless of their past or current circumstances. The programs unique approach and curriculum cultivates self-awareness and self-discovery. Committed program staff and volunteers provide intensive life skills coaching and mentoring to help youth develop their hopes and dreams for the future based on the four cornerstones of integrity, responsibility, community, and possibility. Bright futures gets teens re-engaged in school and reconnected with their families and community by providing a supportive, nurturing environment where youth can develop the assets they need to succeed in school and in life. Crucial to the success of this program are the many volunteers, mentors, and the residential treatment camp held once per year. Form 990, Part III, Line 4	PROGRAM SUMMARY. Cultural Brokers Program staff referred to as cultural supporters is a model that is emerging as a promising practice in california, in which community members serve as liaisons and catalysts for change, and bridge the cultural gap by communicating both differences and similarities between cultures to social workers. The cultural brokers program is a strategy to help break the pattern of disproportionality and outcome disparity, and provide greater opportunity for success that may not have been tried before for families involved in the santa clara county child welfare system. We work directly with emergency response ir social workers who have been contacted by child protective services. Our obligation is to be with the social worker at the first interaction with the parents. The uniqueness of conxions program is the hiring of cultural supporters that know the system as they have been through the system and had a successful outcome. They have first-hand knowledge of requirements/demands from the county system. Cultural supporters are spanish speaking, need fingerprinting for background clearance, car and car insurance, and taken the training required by social services.
